WSA provides advisory services based on the information provided by Client regarding Client's individual financial objectives, needs and circumstances. The advisory services provided may consist of, but are not limited to, assessing the Client's advisory needs, recommending affiliated and unaffiliated licensed advisors ("Other Advisors"), coordinating the activities of Other Advisors, and collecting and communicating necessary Client information to Other Advisors. At the time of conducting the advisory solicitation, WSA Affiliates, LLC will ensure that all federal and/or state specific requirements governing solicitation activities are met.

FINANCIAL PLANNING

WSA provides financial planning services to Clients on a fee and non-fee basis. Financial planning is a process and suite of analyses designed to model a client's current and future financial status by using variables to predict future cash flows, asset values, and assist with withdrawal strategies. Financial planning is offered to Clients on either a formal or informal basis. Under a formal planning engagement, Clients will contractually hire WSA to produce a detailed written analysis for an agreed upon fee. Alternatively, WSA may provide clients with complimentary analyses in circumstances where a more comprehensive plan may not be warranted.

Financial plans may address any or all of the following areas:

- PERSONAL: We may review family records, budgeting, personal liability, estate information and financial goals.
- TAX & CASH FLOW: We may analyze the client's income tax and spending and planning for past, current and future years; then illustrate the impact of various investments on the client's current income tax and future tax liability.
- INVESTMENTS: We may analyze various investment options, their allocations, and the effect on the client's portfolio.
- INSURANCE: We may review existing policies to ensure proper coverage for life, health, disability, long-term care, liability, home, and automobile.
- RETIREMENT: We may analyze current withdrawal strategies and investment savings plans to help the client achieve his or her retirement goals.
- DEATH & DISABILITY: We may review the client's cash needs at death, income needs of surviving dependents, estate planning and disability income.
- ESTATE: We may assist the client in assessing and developing long-term strategies, including as appropriate, living trusts, wills, review estate tax, powers of attorney, asset protection plans, nursing homes, Medicaid, and elder law.

WSA gathers certain personal and financial information in order to provide our analyses. Information requested may include the client's current financial status, financial assets, tax status, future goals, returns objectives, needs, and attitudes towards risk. Once analyzed, the client will be provided with recommendations, either formal or informal depending on the nature of the engagement. The Client is under no obligation to implement any of the recommendations or to work with any affiliated or unaffiliated Other Advisors we may suggest. At the Client's election, we will refer the client to Other Advisors and then work closely with those parties to help implement the desired solutions. Implementation of financial plan recommendations is entirely at the client's discretion.

WSA's services are not intended to constitute investment advice. WSA is not an investment manager, but may provide Clients with opinions on topics effecting their financial plan that may include:

Advisory clients are subject to Other Adviser's minimum account requirements and advisory fees in effect at the time the client entered into the advisory relationship. Therefore, our firm's minimum account requirements and fee schedules may differ among clients we refer to Other Advisors.

Our Financial Planning fees are calculated and charged on an hourly basis, ranging from $100 to $250 per hour based on the complexity of the case and rate of the planner providing the plan.
